SUPREME COURT FELLOWSHIP

Selected as one of four Supreme Court Fellows for 1998-1999, from a national applicant pool of over 160. The participants are selected by the Supreme Court Fellows Commission which is a thirteen member panel of nationally known federal judges, academics, attorneys and government officials who are appointed by Chief Justice Roberts.

Every year one of the four Supreme Court Fellows is selected as the Justice Tom Clark Fellow in recognition of former Associate Justice Clark's contributions to the Supreme Court Fellows Program. This award was given to me by Chief Justice Rehnquist on June 4, 1999.
