Paul FIORELLI

Scientific Activities of PAUL FIORELLI

Paul Fiorelli is Co-Director of Cintas Institute for Business Ethics, Professor of Legal Studies at Xavier University and former Supreme Court Fellow of United States Sentencing Commission.

Given his professional background in Business Ethics and Compliance, he is formally being asked to participate in the scientific activities of LEJEP and the School of Law.

He is being asked to teach in the domain of Corporate Governance and Compliance at Master 2 level. In addition, he will be asked to share his personal knowledge and research by conferences to the students and members of LEJEP during his visit.

During his stay he will contribute to the organization of the European Symposium in Ethics and Governance 2016 with Roxana Family and Gretchen Winter.

He has a very strong publishing experience in Business Ethics and is an international speaker.

He has been invited on a date between October and December 2015.
