

---

PROJET SCIENTIFIQUE

Jim PETERSON

Scientific Activities of Jim PETERSON

Regarding his professional background in legal responsibility that applies to complex multi-national matters involving corporate financial information Jim PETERSON, former partner of Arthur Andersen and professor at the University of Chicago, is formally being asked to participate in the scientific activities of LEJEP and the School of Law.

He is being asked to teach in the domain of risk management and decision making at a Master 2 level. In addition, he will be asked to share his personal knowledge and research based on his experience representing global companies, international accounting firms and their professional groups with disputes, negotiations, government agency proceedings and standard-setting, as well as advising at senior levels in the underlying strategic debates.

During his stay he will co-write an article with Gretchen Winter, invited professor of the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, on the tools to implement Ethics and Compliance programs.

He has specialized experience working with the Journal of Accountancy (the professional journal of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants) and the American Corporate Counsel Association's journal.

He has been invited on a date between January and April 2015